Events

Antique Festival: Every October, the Antique Festival is held in Millersburg, Ohio. The highlight of the two-day event is the open-air antique market on both days. Also part of the festival is an Antique Festival Queen and Princess contest, a classic car show and parade.

Millersburg has a long history with carnival glass, and collectors of this specialty item enjoy the glass auction that takes place on Saturday.

The event has a website with a full schedule and details:

Vintage Fair: An annual event in June, the Vintage Fair brings together antique stores and upcycling hobbyists to sell and share rough and finished projects. With the Amish region's dedication to quilting, visitors to the Vintage Fair will also find many fabric art and quilting-influenced projects.

Antiques in the Alley: This outdoor antiques show takes place in Millersburg for one day in May and August. The antique shops set up on the courthouse lawn and along the main roads with antiques for sale.
